William Shakespeare quotes; - If you have ever used any of the below listed terms or phrases- you've quoted the Bard of Avon himself.

Piece of cake.

In a pickle.

Tower of strength.

Long and short of it.

Too much of a good thing.

Dead as a doornail.

Bottom of my heart.

Footloose and fancy free... And these are just a few of them.

Recipe: Hot Cross Buns (Makes 18)

1-cup milk (scalded) add 1/3-cup sugar, 1 egg, 2 tbs butter, little salt. Also add to sugar: ¼ tsp cinnamon, 1/8 tsp nutmeg, ¼ cup raisins, and a little chopped citron. Sprinkle 1 package active dry yeast over 2 tbs warm water, beat in milk mixture.

Sift before measuring 2 2/3 cup all-purpose flour. Stir in part of flour; knead in the rest. Cover and let dough rise in a warm place until doubled in bulk. After the first rising, shape dough into 18 balls and place on baking sheet. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake 425 for 20 mins. Decorate with cross using a milk glaze.

Milk glaze: ½ cup confectioners sugar, 2 tps hot milk, and ¼ tsp vanilla.... Enjoy!

On Special this month: A selection of Biscuits.

2nd April lets all spring forward an hour.
