

Pantry Patter

June 2006

Greetings to all customers and friends. Hope everyone is enjoying the delightful weather! Congratulations to Florence Miller. Flo is the winner of the Mothers Day basket.

Fathers Day 18th June. We have a new selection of Baseball caps with the Union Jack, London, England and the Royal Crest logos. We also have a selection of T-shirts for Dad.
Just arrived: Mr. Kipling Battenberg cakes.

Big decisions? Loose-leaf tea or Teabags...Here at the British Pantry we are asked this question often.

Advantages of teabags. Easy to brew just one cup, quick and convenient, and no untidy wet leaves to dispose of.

Advantages of loose-leaf tea. An endless choice of world teas. The decision of how much tea to use is left to the consumer.

However, after all is said and done there is nothing like a good cuppa- tea.

Do you know who said: Make hay while the sun shines? *

Recipe: Tangy Chicken Salad.

1 small head iceberg lettuce, torn into pieces

2 cups shredded cooked chicken

¼ cup diced celery

1 can (13oz) pineapple chunks, drained

Salt and pepper to taste.

¾ cup Heinz Salad Cream. (Weight watchers or regular)

In a salad bowl, combine lettuce, chicken, celery, pineapple, salt and pepper. Chill. Just before serving, toss with Heinz Salad Cream. Makes 6-8 servings.

We are planning to discontinue our Indian line of products. We are reducing the Homepride Korma sauce, Sharwoods puppodums, and Mango Chutney.

Its rather early to start thinking about Christmas, but here at the British Pantry we will be ordering our Christmas items (selection boxes, Cakes, pies, crackers etc.) If there is anything you would like us to try and bring over, please call or drop by the BP and we will do our best.

The Royal Mint has issued a commemorative five-pound coin to celebrate the Queen's 80th Birthday.
