

Pantry Patter

May 2006

May is a wonderful time to be in England, and on the plus side the exchange rate is a little better than it has been. Make plans to visit this year and see the wonderful sights England has to offer. Of course if you can't make it to the UK you can always purchase your favorite foods at the British Pantry.

May 14th: Mothers Day, and the British Pantry has everything your "Mum" would like. Black Magic chocolates have just arrived, along with Quality Street and Roses. We also have Roberts Clotted Cream Fudge (made in Cornwall).

Who said it: England expects every officer and man to do his duty this day. *

Recipe: Speedy Potato Salad.

3 cans 16oz sliced potatoes, drained and sliced

1 cup sliced celery

2 tblsp chopped onion

½ cup sour cream

¼ cup Heinz Salad Cream

In a bowl, combine potatoes, celery and onion. Toss with sour cream blended with Heinz Salad Cream and chill. Makes about 10 servings.

Just a reminder: We are now online www.britishpantryga.com. We can ship to you.

London Underground's Bakerloo line celebrated 100 years' service on March 10th. First opened in 1906 between Baker Street and Waterloo (hence Bakerloo) and Lambeth North.

New Items: Fiesta animal figurines and Greenmen. We also have Woodenheart animal kits made in Yorkshire.

*Answer: Nelson before the Battle of Trafalgar.

Bring in your Pantry Patter and receive -10% off your entire bill.

We are giving away a Mothers Day Gift Basket (free drawing). Drawing will be at 4pm on the 12th May. Good luck.
